

Bailey Miller of Baker High School Wins First Place

WASHINGTON—U.S. Rep. Jo Bonner (R-AL) today announced Bailey Miller of Baker High School as the winner of this year's First Congressional District High School Art Competition: An Artistic Discovery. Created in 1982, the nationwide art competition has showcased the artistic and creative talents of thousands of young people for over two decades.

Miller, a student of art instructor Ann Fredella, was awarded first-place honors for the entry, "Water Wonderland." In addition to this award, Miller is also eligible for a scholarship from the Savannah College of Art and Design. Miller's artwork along with the other winning entries will be displayed for one year in the United States Capitol building.

□□□□□□□□□□ "I am honored to participate in this competition that provides excellent exposure for the talented young men and women of the First Congressional District," Bonner said today. □ "It is so important to encourage our young artists to develop and share their gifts with the community, and I commend the Mobile Museum of Art for their continued support of this competition." □

A reception honoring all of this year's winners and their families will be held on Friday,

April 29, 2007, at 3:30 p.m. at the Mobile Museum of Art. Bonner will be on hand to congratulate all of the entrants and to present awards to the winners.
